

Co-design for new forms of urban living

ABOUT US

- 2011 informal group of urban activists from towns and cities all over Poland
- 2017 federation of non-governmental organizations
- 2020 over 40 ngo's from over 20 towns and cities

URBAN THESIS

16 points joining us around common values: right to the city, solidarity, participation, sustainable development (esp. climate change)

Co-design for new forms of urban living

CHALLENGES

low level of social trust

low level of respect for the common good

private property as inviolable

informing and consulting instead of co-design / decision making lack of social / communication modules in teaching architecture

and urban planning

low quality of public debate

Co-design for new forms of urban living

OUR ACTIVITIES CITIZENS

empowerment

URBAN PLANNERS AND ARCHITECTS

education

good practices

Co-design for new forms of urban living

OUR ACTIVITIES LOCAL AUTHORITIES

consultations in urban planning (optional vs. mandatory)
participatory budgets
resolution initiative

CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION

introducing new ideas into public debate
urban regeneration
national urban policy
Ministry of Towns and Cities

Co-design for new forms of urban living

RECOMMENDATIONS PATIENCE AND TRUST

BUILDING A SUPPORT NETWORK

PUBLIC DEBATE

INTERSECTORAL / INTERDISCIPLINARY COOPERATION

WORKSHOPS

LEGISLATION

